Re: Medieval Times U.S.A., Inc. v. Medieval Times Performers United, et. al.
Civil Action No.: 2:22-cv-06050-WJM-ESK

Dear Mr. Walsh:

This firm represents Medieval Times U.S.A., Inc. ("Medieval Times") in the above-captioned case. Pursuant to L. Civ. R. 7.1(d)(5), Medieval Times respectfully requests to adjourn the motion day and extend the deadline to file opposition papers to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss the Complaint [D.E. 11].

Defendants' Motion is a dispositive motion, and therefore, the provisions of L. Civ. R. 7.1(d)(5) providing for the adjournment of the motion day once by a party opposing the motion "without the consent of the moving party, the Court, or the Clerk," apply.

The original noticed motion day of February 6, 2023 for Defendants' Motion has not previously been extended or adjourned. By invoking L. Civ. R. 7.1(d)(5) through this letter before the date on which the opposition papers would otherwise be due, the new motion day for Defendants' Motion will be February 21, 2023. Under this new motion day, Plaintiff's opposition papers are due by February 7, 2023.

We thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully,

STEVENS & LEE
